ST CLEER PARISH COUNCIL

		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Glyphosate is a widely used weedkiller that can affect a broad range of plants and organisms, and may remain in the environment for some time. ● Some scientific studies suggest it can affect the balance of microorganisms in the soil, which are important for maintaining healthy soil and plant growth. ● It can dissolve easily in water and has been found in rivers and streams, where it may harm wildlife such as fish, amphibians, and insects. ● It was also noted that, according to the Soil Association, there is not yet clear and conclusive evidence about its effects on human health, and that much of the existing research has been based on animal studies.
2026.04.2 2-4	4.	To CONSIDER if St Cleer Parish Council would like to opt out of the Cornwall Council Public Realm Improvement and Re-introduction of Weed Treatment programme Minutes: Council considered in detail Key discussion points: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● If Cornwall Council (CC) does not proceed, the Parish Council may need to take responsibility. ● Evidence on glyphosate remains inconclusive. ● Glyphosate is still legally permitted. ● The broader debate should focus on long-term solutions and possible alternatives. ● Concern that if the Council opt out now they may lose out in the future if the weed treatment or a similar one goes ahead. Cllr Sean Smith advised that Cornwall Council had postponed the proposal following further investigation. Council agreed that they didn't need to make an immediate decision and that the item should be carried forward.
